Circular

No. 2-62-2008-HD(G)/1266

The Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in the case of Lalita Kumari Vs. State of U. P. and Ors, vide its Judgment and Order dated 12-11-2013 has issued certain directions as regards the registration of FIR by a Police officer in charge of Police Station.

This Circular is issued to all Police officers in the Goa Police Department, inter alia giving following directions for compliance thereof and also to protect the Rights of the citizens and public.

(i) Registration of FIR is mandatory under Section 154 of the Code, if the information discloses commission of a cognizable offence and no preliminary inquiry is permissible in such a situation.

(ii) If the information received does not disclose a cognizable offence but indicates the necessity for an inquiry, a preliminary inquiry may be conducted only to ascertain whether cognizable offence is disclosed or not.

(iii) If the inquiry discloses the commission of a cognizable offence, the FIR must be registered. In cases where preliminary inquiry ends in closing the complaint, a copy of the entry of such closure must be supplied to the first informant forthwith and not later than one week. It must disclose reasons in brief for closing the complaint and not proceeding further.

(iv) The Police officer cannot avoid his duty of registering offence if cognizable offence is disclosed. Action must be taken against erring officers who do not register the FIR if information received by him, discloses a cognizable offence.

(v) The scope of preliminary inquiry is not to verify the veracity or otherwise of the information received but only to ascertain whether the information reveals any cognizable offence.

(vi) As to what type and in which cases preliminary inquiry is to be conducted will depend on the facts and circumstances of each case. In terms of the Supreme Court directions, the category of cases in which preliminary inquiry may be made are as under:-

- (a) Matrimonial disputes/family disputes.
- (b) Commercial offences.
- (c) Medical negligence cases.
- (d) Corruption cases.
- (e) Cases where there is abnormal delay/laches in initiating criminal prosecution, for example, over 3 months delay in reporting the matter without satisfactorily explaining the reasons for delay.

The aforesaid are only illustrations and not exhaustive of all conditions which may warrant preliminary inquiry.

(vii) While ensuring and protecting the rights of the accused and the complainant, preliminary inquiry should be made time bound and in any case it should not exceed 7 days. The fact of such delay and the causes of it must be reflected in the General Diary entry.

(viii) Since the General Diary/Station Diary/Daily Diary is the record of all information received in Police Station, we directed that all information relating to cognizable offences, whether resulting in registration of FIR or leading to an enquiry, must be mandatorily and meticulously reflected in the said Diary and the decision to conduct a preliminary inquiry must also be reflected, as mentioned above.

This however will not take away the discretion of the Police exercised in terms of proviso (a) and (b) to Section 157 (1) of the Cr. P. C. of course subject to the conditions contained in the said provisos as well as in Section 157(2).

In cases where it is found that the complaint, FIR has been based for malicious reasons/false complaints; prosecution for such acts of malicious prosecution must be launched.

The aforesaid direction should be strictly complied with by the Police officers in charge of Police Stations.

By order and in the name of the Governor of Goa.

Neetal P. Amonkar, Under Secretary (Home).
